Yellow warning
Wind

Between
06:00 Tue 1 Feb 2022 and
18:00 Tue 1 Feb 2022

Strong winds on Tuesday may lead to some disruption.

What to expect

- Some short term loss of power and other services is possible
- Probably some bus and train services affected, with some journeys taking longer
- It's possible that some coastal routes, sea fronts and coastal communities will be affected by spray and/or large waves

Further details

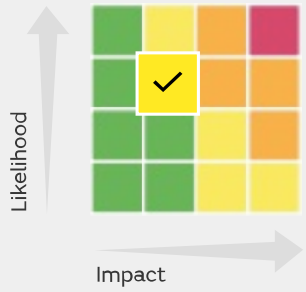
Strong northwesterly winds are expected to develop across northern Scotland early on Tuesday morning, persisting through the day.

Gusts of up to 50 mph are expected, reaching as high as 55 to 65 mph across northern Sutherland, Caithness and Orkney. These speeds are much less than experienced in Storms Malik and Corrie, and not unusual for the time of year but recently weakened trees and structures could be prone to further damage. Winds will ease by evening.



✓ Medium likelihood of low impacts
